

STEWART LEADS BY 712; SEVEN COUNTIES MISSING

Parks, Machine Candidate, Ahead Until Midnight--Stewart's Majority in El Paso County Is 2,421

DENVER, Sept. 13. Returns received up to midnight tonight with seven counties missing give Philip B. Stewart a slight lead over Clifford C. Parks for the Republican nomination for governor. The figures are: Stewart 16,288; Parks 16,076. Until late tonight Parks was in the lead. The counties which have made no returns at all from Tuesday's primary are: Teller, Baca, Custer, Douglas, Eagle, Jefferson and Kit Carson. Republican returns are lacking from La Plata county. Several other counties have sent incomplete figures.

Stewart's majority in El Paso county, according to the official count, is 2,421. The count on governor was completed last night, as well as on some county offices that were in doubt. W. P. Kinney beat Robert Kerr for county judge by nine votes. Miss Minnie McGall's lead over Miss Laura Leach for county superintendent of schools is 101 votes. Dunbar F. Carpenter, for district attorney, carried this, the home county of both him and his opponent, W. L. Strachan, by 118 votes. Complete returns from the other six counties in the Fourth judicial district have not been received.

The official count on the Democratic candidates for representative also was completed last night, with the following result: Kavanaugh, 903; Meloy, 896; Radley, 894; Ward, 889; Boyd, 785.

Old Man Mortgages Home to Meet Son; Latter Dies at Sea

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—When William H. Greer of Nashville, Tenn., got the transport Logan from the agent today, having mortgaged his home and come to San Francisco to join his son, he was shown a cable containing the young man's body. The son, J. W. Greer, who was an examiner in the customs service at Manila, died of fever on the voyage across the Pacific.

The younger Greer recently wrote his father, who is now an old man, that he was ill and would leave on the Logan for the continent. Funds were low and the father found it necessary to mortgage the family home to make the journey here.

With an eager throng, he awaited the coming of the ship today. In response to his anxious inquiry, a deck officer told him sternly and gently pointed to the casket.

REPUBLICAN OLD GUARD DOWNED IN NEW MEXICO

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 13.—Heeding Senator A. B. Fall's advice given the Republican state convention at its convention here yesterday, that the old guard step aside and give the younger members of the party a voice in the affairs, the newly elected state central committee met today, and unanimously chose Heber W. Clark of Las Vegas as state chairman. Mr. Clark is a lawyer and but 39 years of age. He has been for several years assistant United States attorney. The new chairman is the youngest man ever to serve in that position in the history of New Mexico politics.

PROGRESSIVES WILL CONTROL COMMITTEE

Republicans Will Meet to Organize at Court House This Afternoon

In conformity with the direct primary law, which requires that the county central committee meet to organize within five days after the primary election, the Republican committee will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the district court room to elect officers. The meeting was called by Acting Chairman A. E. Hayes of the now defunct appointive committee, which is superseded by a committee composed of precinct committeemen and women elected at the primary election.

Owing to the failure of the judges to copy off results or to sign the books, the official count by County Clerk Sheldon has been retarded and it will be late this morning before the names of those elected members of the committee are officially determined. The results in practically every precinct were known, however, from the unofficial returns and notices of the meeting were mailed to those elected by a Miss Chairman Hayes. Notices were also sent to the successful candidates for county offices who, according to the primary election law, will have a voice in the selection of committee officers.

Indications are that the Progressive Republicans will be in control of the committee by a substantial majority, as they elected more than half the precinct committeemen and women, and others named by the assembly are Progressives. The committee will select a chairman and secretary and the opinion seems to prevail that the two contesting wings of the party in the primary election will be able to get together on a basis consistent with the position of the Progressives against the old machine.

RETAILERS NECESSARY, DECLARES LUMBERMAN

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 13.—The federal lumber inquiry which has been in progress ended here with the examination of F. E. Robbins of Fitz-Wash. vice president of the White River Lumber company, and W. C. Miles of Seattle, president of the Globe Lumber company, Globe, Wash., and manager of the West Coast Lumber Manufacturers' association. Both witnesses were called by the defense.

Both the witnesses all admitted to consumers the retailers would not be driven out of business, and any community without a retail lumber dealer would be in a bad fix. Mr. Robbins testified, "unless the consumer there could buy in carload lots, which very few can do."

At the close of Miles' testimony, the hearing was adjourned sine die. It probably will be continued this fall in Kansas City or some other city of the central west.

CRIPPLE CREEK MINERS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

CRIPPLE CREEK, Sept. 13.—Two miners, Frank Whitmore and Charles Lund, were nearly killed today on the Doctor Jack Pot mine. The men descended into the mine which was filled on the lower levels with carbon dioxide gas. They did not notice the presence of the gas on account of carrying acetylene lanterns, and when it commenced to affect them they became confused and signaled the engineer wildly. The engineer hoisted the men to the surface and they were found unconscious in the bucket when they reached the top.

POLITICIAN CONVICTED AS A WHITE SLAVER

SEOKANE, Wash., Sept. 13.—George E. Marlow, an attorney of Herick, Idaho, was found guilty today in the United States district court, on four counts charging violations of the white slave law, in transporting two girls from Washington to Idaho. Marlow has been prominent in Shoshone county, Idaho, politics.

FATHER DEPOSED AS HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—A punishment for having beaten his 15-year-old son with a length of garden hose, Charles Hoffman, a mari painter, (lands today, by court order, deposed from his position as head of his household. The order was entered by Judge Willis of the juvenile court, who constituted Mrs. Hoffman legally head of the house.

WILL REAL FIRMER POLICY RUSSLS TWO TO ONE

SENATOR

Colonel Roosevelt Makes Confident Prediction in Address at Ogden, Utah

LISTENERS COME 200 MILES

Progressive Movement Is Spreading Like Wildfire in East, Declares T. R.

OGDEN, Utah, Sept. 13.—"We are going to beat the bosses two to one at the polls next November," Colonel Roosevelt prophesied today. He said that in the east the Progressive party "would attend to the bosses," and urged the people of the west to do likewise. While the Progressive movement had originated in the west, he said, it was "spreading like wildfire in the east."

Colonel Roosevelt made his prophesy at the close of his long tour through the northwest, the outcome of which, he said, pleased him greatly. He came today into Utah from Idaho, speaking on the way at Lewiston and Pocatello, Idaho. He stopped in Ogden only long enough to address the delegates to the Progressive state convention, then left for Reno, Nev., on his way to the coast.

At Ogden, Colonel Roosevelt attacked "certain men" in Utah who, he said, were opposing him because they said he had told them he would not be a candidate and they had promised President Taft their support. Colonel Roosevelt spoke to a large crowd of people, some of whom had come 200 miles to hear him.

"I want to say one word," he began, "about certain men in Utah who are whining that they cannot support me because they have given their pledge to President Taft to support him. I do not object to a man because he supports me, but I do object to the action of any man who says he is going to support me and then backs out. I am going to back out of the Chicago convention and I am going to back out of the Chicago convention and I am going to back out of the Chicago convention."

Indications are that the Progressive Republicans will be in control of the committee by a substantial majority, as they elected more than half the precinct committeemen and women, and others named by the assembly are Progressives. The committee will select a chairman and secretary and the opinion seems to prevail that the two contesting wings of the party in the primary election will be able to get together on a basis consistent with the position of the Progressives against the old machine.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 13.—Senator William Alden Smith, member of the senatorial committee on foreign relations, at present engaged in an investigation of Mexican affairs, in an address to the Associated Press today, appealed for a more firm policy of the United States government, which, he said, must recognize the importance of a condition "so full of complexity."

Senator Smith, as chairman of the subcommittee investigating the American relation to the revolutions in Mexico, has completed his preliminary work here and departed today for Los Angeles, where he will be joined by A. B. Fall, senator from New Mexico, and a member of the investigating committee.

"While it would be foolhardy for our government to involve itself unnecessarily in the affairs of Mexico, yet as a practical superman in the western hemisphere, we should never hesitate to protect American citizens from torture, persecution or robbery which occur through the inability of constitutional authorities to exercise their protective functions for the preservation of the liberties and other rights of Americans," declared the senator from Michigan.

"So many cases of wanton oppression and unnecessary hardship have presented themselves to our committee, and seemingly so little has been done by our government to strike at the root of the evil, that I believe we are justified in saying that the Mexican people are in a desperate situation, and that the United States government has a duty to do something to relieve them."

Firm Policy Needed. "A firm, vigorous, determined and unflinching foreign policy, which asks for justice and fair treatment of Americans at the hands of other governments, and assures the same treatment of their citizens among us, should be the secure heritage of our people, and it must not be a garment to put on and off at the whim or caprice of anyone."

"If I had an idea regarding intervention, I would not give it, because I have no facts upon which to base such a statement. I will say, however, that I have that long before our government could act through appropriate channels, a fair and equitable solution between the warring elements in Mexico will have been reached."

Colonel Confident. It was in his speech at Pocatello that Colonel Roosevelt declared his confidence in the outcome in November. He spoke from a platform in front of the public school, and to make himself heard at all was obliged to put in a good deal of his time in endeavoring to quiet the swarms of school children who scrambled upon the platform.

"Now, all you kids, keep perfectly quiet," the colonel admonished them while he arose to speak. "I've taken a

MARTIN "GETS OFF THE EARTH" IN 18 SECONDS

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—It took Glenn H. Martin less than 18 seconds to "get off the earth" at the aviation meet today. He won the mile starting event under conditions requiring him to be 20 feet away at a given signal and to start his engine second and cross a line 500 feet distant. His time was 17.45 seconds.

Max Little was second in 20.92 seconds; Maurice Prevost of France, the only aviator flying a monoplane, was third in 22.69 seconds and Howard Clark, fourth, in 22.49 seconds.

Despite a rain which continued while half a dozen aviators were in the air some of them 1,000 feet high, all of the day's events were run off. Martin won the event for most accurate landing, shutting his engine off 1,000 feet up and descending to within nine feet of a given spot. Little was third in 24 feet 10 inches; Prevost, third, 120 feet 5 inches; and Deland Thompson, fourth, 127 feet 4 inches.

In the 12-mile race by airplanes carrying driver and passenger, Thompson won first prize in 11 minutes and 3.5 seconds; Anthony Jannus second in 15 minutes 33.35 seconds.

As the only entrant in a monoplane race, Prevost covered the 12 laps of the one-mile course, but his time was under his previous records.

Aviator Earl Eastman and a passenger were 2,000 feet in the air when the engine of the biplane went wrong. Daughters, kept control of the machine and made a perfect glide to earth.

INJUNCTION AGAINST PROGRESSIVE SOUGHT

CANON CITY, Sept. 13.—Augustus Pease, Democratic nominee for district judge of the Eleventh judicial district, today filed a petition in the district court for a restraining order to prevent Secretary of State James B. Pearce from circulating the name of Charles A. Wilkin, Republican candidate for judge, on the Progressive ticket. The Progressive, in county convention last week, agreed to support the Republican candidate, legislative and district candidates.

AMERICANS IN MORE DANGER

INACTIVITY OF FEDERAL TROOPS PRESENTED

Madero Movement Through U. S. Territory Increases Rebel Hostility

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 13.—The American embassy has been informed by John Levine, writing from Cuernavaca, and claiming to be an American enlisted in the Mexican army, that he has been sentenced to death by the federalists and that he is ignorant of the whereabouts of his family. The embassy has not been able to discover the whereabouts of the writer among the Mexican soldiers.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 13.—The attack of General Salazar's rebels on El Tigre today ended in a repulse for the rebels by the small band of federalists garrisoning the camp.

According to word received here tonight, the attack began at 6 o'clock this morning. At 7:30 o'clock Salazar sent a messenger under a flag of truce to the commander of the federalists demanding the surrender of the town to avoid further bloodshed. As no one in the camp had been wounded it was believed that Salazar's request came as the result of loss among his own men.

When the demand for the town's surrender was refused, Salazar renewed the attack and firing continued until 2 o'clock tonight. At that hour Salazar withdrew his force but at midnight they began firing upon the town at long range. The federalists replying to the rebels were wounded. No Americans were hurt. The rebel loss is unknown. One rebel was killed on the streets in an attempt by a party of rebels to rush a section of the camp. It is thought their loss in the hills was heavy.

The plant of the El Tigre mining company was still operating late tonight. Reinforcements for the federal garrison are expected to reach there at midnight. General Samblins is expected to send a force from Agua Prieta, south at daybreak. A detachment of Rojas' band is reported to be 30 miles north of Colonia Morelos tonight. The north of Colonia Morelos tonight. The remainder are still at Caniza, 12 miles from Douglas.

Antaricans at El Tigre were notified by the company officials to take to heart the defense of the camp because of the half dozen American women there and also certain retaliation by the rebels in the event of the town's capture, which would mean a heavy financial loss to the company. The telephone wires were cut about noon today but not until word was received that a force of 180 federalists from Nogales had left Yabari for El Tigre, 35 miles distant. Salazar's force is said to outnumber greatly the defenders of the camp. Rojas was reported to be at Gallardo ranch, 12 miles from Agua Prieta, late today.

Americans Indignant. Much indignation was expressed here today by Americans with heavy interests in Sonora because of the inactivity of the Mexican federalists. It was asserted that the permission granted the Madero government to transport its troops through American territory for the purpose of putting down the revolution in Sonora had greatly increased the hostility of the rebels to the Americans in that state and that with a large force of federalists now within striking distance of the main body of insurgents, Americans were in even greater jeopardy than heretofore.

Officials of the United States government in Douglas expressed openly the belief that General Samblins had no intention of giving battle to the rebels although he has a much superior force and equipment. The Douglas International local afternoon newspaper, which has heretofore been a strong supporter of the Madero government, issued today a bitter denunciation of that administration because of federal inactivity while rebels were looting within a few miles. The complacent attitude of the federal leaders was referred to as a "disgraceful farce."

Reports from many points in Sonora indicate that rebel bands are swarming

BRYAN WILL STUMP ALL THROUGH WEST

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 13.—The itinerary of William J. Bryan's western stumping tour was made public here this afternoon. Starting from Denver, Mr. Bryan will close his western trip September 20 in Wyoming, in time to return to Lincoln by October 5, when he is scheduled to deliver an address from the same platform as Governor Wilson.

Mr. Bryan will tour southern Colorado September 15, speaking at the state fair in Pueblo on the morning of the seventeenth. He will deliver an address in Provo, Utah, the next afternoon and one in Salt Lake City that evening.

He will speak at Los Angeles on the afternoon of September 22 and the next morning at Stockton. He will address the Democratic state convention at Sacramento the same afternoon and will speak September 24 in the evening at San Francisco. The next day he will be the guest of the Civic league, a woman's political organization of Sacramento, at a noon luncheon, and at night he will address a public meeting at Sacramento.

Reno and Carson, Nev., are his next stops, where he will speak September 26. He will address an evening meeting at Ogden, Utah, the next day and will end his campaign in Wyoming on September 29, 29 and 30.

JAPANESE WAR HERO KILLS HIMSELF

General Nogi Takes Own Life as Final Tribute to His Departed Emperor

Wife Meets End With Him

Tragic Sacrifice to Ancient Custom by Hero of Port Arthur Shocks Tokio

TOKIO, Sept. 13.—General Count Maresuke Nogi, supreme military commander of the empire and his wife, the Countess Nogi, committed suicide tonight in accordance with an ancient Japanese custom, as a final tribute to their departed emperor and friend, Mutsuhito.

The death by their own hands of the famous general and his wife was a dramatic act, it was said. The general cut his throat with a short sword and the countess committed harakari.

Following the Samurai custom, the couple had carefully prepared their plans for killing themselves and died them so that they would be independent with the departure of their emperor, the death of the dead emperor.

General Nogi and the countess had attended the funeral services of Mutsuhito at the palace here today, and it was expected they would proceed to Aoyama tonight with the cortege. Instead, however, at the conclusion of the ceremony at the palace they withdrew to their modest home in Akasaka, a suburb of Tokio, and there began their final preparations for death.

First, the general wrote a letter to his new emperor, Yoshihito, which later was found beside his body. Then he draped in mourning a portrait of the late emperor, and afterward he and his wife dressed themselves in full Japanese costume and drank a farewell cup of tea from cups which had been presented to them by Mutsuhito.

Wait Calmly for Death. Darkness had fallen and General Nogi and the countess sat and awaited the signal they had agreed upon to announce their leaving. This was the coming of a single gun in the palace grounds at Tokio, which was to let the people know that the body of the emperor was starting on the funeral car for its last resting place.

As the boom of the gun resounded through the clear, still night, General Nogi arose, and, grasping in his hand a short sword, plunged it into his throat, while the countess stabbed herself through the body.

A student who resided in the Nogi home heard the fall of the bodies and rushed into the room.

Lying upon the floor were the bodies of Port Arthur and his wife. Both still were breathing, but their spasmodic gasps showed plainly that death was near. The student hurried for aid, but when he returned both the general and the countess were dead.

Creates Sensation. The tragedy created a profound sensation and expressions of sorrow were heard on every hand tonight. Expressions of grief were heard on every hand tonight.

TANGLE IN SOUTH DAKOTA SETTLED

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Sept. 13.—Governor Johnson came into South Dakota today to deliver two addresses and lend a hand in an attempt to straighten out the tangle in which the Progressive and Republican leaders have become involved. At a meeting between the Progressive executive, Governor Vessey, Senator Crawford, Carl Sherwood, chairman of the Republican state committee, and other political leaders, the situation was threshed out with pleasing results to the vice presidential candidate.

"Everything looks fine in South Dakota," Governor Johnson said after the meetings. "I do not feel apprehensive in the least about the Progressive cause here."

The most important accomplishment of the conference was the decision to make John Sutherland, who managed the Roosevelt primary campaign in the state last spring, assistant to Sherwood. All candidates on the state and congressional tickets have agreed to work together. The ticket is composed of Progressive candidates with the exception of the aspirants for lieutenant governor, Auditor and Congressmen Burke and Martin, who are candidates for reelection. They are regulars, but have agreed to the state ticket harmony plan.

The governor made addresses at Huron and Sioux Falls.

LAST OF ALLEN CLAN ON TRIAL ACQUITTED

WYTHEVILLE, Va., Sept. 13.—Victor Allen, last of the Allen clanmen to be tried, was acquitted today of the charge of having participated in the Carroll county court house murders at Ellsville last March.

Don't Pull Out the Gray Hairs

Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place. It is an old saying, which is to a great extent true. It is no steps you taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable anti-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "Sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Agents, the Robinson Drug Co.

Social Democrats Meet in Chemnitz

BERLIN, Sept. 12.—The greatest political gathering in point of numbers and in many respects the most important of the year, will begin at Chemnitz, Saxony, September 15, when the Social Democrats gather for their general meeting. Here officers will be elected, party differences adjusted and the plan of campaign for the ensuing year mapped out. Present indications are that the meeting will be marked by many sharp if not bitter contests.

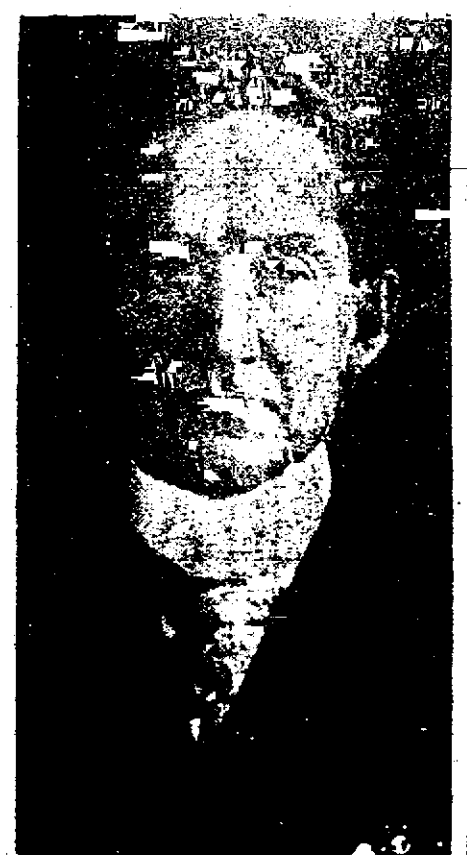

All the party leaders, of whatever faction, deny the existence of any important differences of opinion within the party, but the resolutions looking to the changes of the party organization affirm it. Back of them, although no one in authority will admit it, lies a movement to take from the present leaders of the organization a great part of the power now vested in them by enlarging, certain important committees, creating new checks upon existing executive officers and otherwise restricting the dominant faction in its conduct of party affairs.

The other resolutions refer to, in the main, internal party affairs. It is unlikely that any platform change of any moment will be made, all wings of the party being fairly united as to that, although differing as to methods of procedure. The enrolled members of the party are more than 1,300,000.

Every third voter who went to the polls at last January's election cast a Social Democratic ballot. The party, with 110 seats in the Reichstag, has relegated to second place the clericals, for years the strongest party represented. It has, moreover, 225 delegates in the diets of the various German states.

RAYMOND'S DEATH THE RESULT OF VIOLENCE

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—A. L. Raymond, known to the baseball public as "Big Red," came to his death from "internal hemorrhages and injuries to his brain due to external violence," according to a verdict of a coroner's jury today. Frederick C. Girang, 26 years old, was held to the grand jury accused of causing Raymond's death. Witnesses testified that Girang kicked Raymond into unconsciousness in a fight on September 1. Raymond was found dead in a downtown hotel last Saturday.

PREDICTS $500,000,000 POSTAL BUSINESS.

SENATOR JONATHAN BOURNE. Five hundred million dollars' worth of business in the postoffice department every year, is the prediction of Senator Jonathan A. Bourne, chairman of the committee on postoffices and postroads. The committee under present conditions is self-sustaining, except for the money for the postage for the nation, but the money from postage, etc., being the money back into the treasury, Senator Bourne contends that even development increasing the facilities means an increase in income, the postoffice department being the greatest business establishment in the world, in which every citizen is a stockholder.

SCOTT PASSES UP ONE AMERICAN FOR ANOTHER.

Charlotte Lee, the American actress, has announced her engagement to Antonio Scotti, baritone of the Metropolitan Opera company of New York. She said the marriage would take place in New York as soon as an arrangement could be made. The engagement has caused a stir both here and on the continent, because it marks the collapse of the long-loved rumor that the baritone would marry Geraldine Farrar, the famous American prima donna. The fact has given new interest to the sudden departure of Miss Farrar for Munich. Her health was given as the reason for her trip, but of course there are now some who surmise, for the sake of chat, that there may have been a final understanding between the two singers, either friendly or otherwise.

PARENTS OPPOSED TO TEACHING SEX HYGIENE

DENVER, Sept. 12.—More than 400 Denver parents form every part of the city condemned the teaching of sex hygiene in the high schools of Denver when they signed and presented a petition yesterday to the school board demanding that the course in sex enlightenment be abolished on the grounds of its non-Americanism. The school board is expected to meet tonight to consider the petition. The question of sex hygiene in the schools has agitated Denver parents and teachers since Mrs. Noble began her course with the young girls in the East Denver High school last year. Bitter warfare has been waged; the school board itself has split into factions over the question, and Denver mothers have declared that it was their own sacred privilege and their duty to enlighten their daughters on the secrets and mysteries of life.

Many petitions have been presented to the school board in the past asking the abolition of the course of instruction in sex hygiene, but the petition of yesterday represents the most pronounced and vigorous step yet given in this phase of educational work. These 400 parents emphatically maintain that the schools are usurping the duty and privilege of the home.

The school board quickly referred the petition for consideration to the next meeting of the board, being declined to discuss the proposition in the presence of reporters.

FAKE ORCHARD SCHEMES ABOUT TO BE EXPOSED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The department of agriculture, in a report soon to be issued, will sound a note of warning to all interested against orchard and investment schemes that hold out promises of profits for in exchange of small investments.

Many inquiries have reached the department regarding orange, apple and other enterprises where the orchard is to be done by proxy and the profits are to be made by the sale of the fruit.

It is pointed out that some of these schemes will be exposed by the department of agriculture, because of the investigation of the literature through the mails.

Not all the schemes are fraudulent, but the department, as will be pointed out in the report, this does not mean that the money back into the treasury, Senator Bourne contends that even development increasing the facilities means an increase in income, the postoffice department being the greatest business establishment in the world, in which every citizen is a stockholder.

The safety of a passenger on English railways, as compared with that of an ordinary pedestrian compared with a sleigher, or a flying man. Last year, on the British railways, only one passenger was injured out of every 450,000 carried, but of the employees, one was injured out of every 1,500. In other words, the employee has 6,000 chances of losing his life to the passenger's one chance.

Western Oklahoma contains larger deposits of opium than any state in the Union. It has been estimated that there are 125,000,000 tons of this material in sight in the state.

SAYS SHE WAS FORCED TO DRUG AND ROB RICH MEN

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—J. Paul Folsom, attaché of the county clerk's office and brother of Master in Chancery Folsom, was arrested here following the confession of Gertrude Sutter, a pretty young stenographer employed as private secretary by State Senator John E. Madigan, in which she declared that Folsom sent her and another girl into the streets to lure, drug and rob his rich acquaintances.

The girl made these revelations after she had been arrested on a charge of robbing Oscar Bird, 4815 North Robey street. He identified her as the young woman who, after an evening of gaiety, had drugged and robbed him of $250.

The stenographer repeated her confession and accused Folsom.

"I did not want to do it," she sobbed. "But he made me. I have to do what he says."

"Are you his sister?" asked the judge.

The girl answered, "Yes."

When arrested, Folsom had in his pockets two women's diamond rings and a pearl ring set with diamonds. He refused absolutely to discuss the charge against him.

The girl was arrested this morning still clothed in the handsome stolen gown which had been used as a lure for Bird. She was held in $2,000 bonds and Folsom in $5,000. Both stayed in jail.

Miss Sutter, in a clear, girlish voice which contrasted with her weary eyes and her whitened cheeks, approached the bench and said:

"I didn't drug him. If anybody drugged him it was Folsom. I didn't want the money. Folsom wanted it. I had to get it for him."

ECONOMY OF SMALL COINS

From Philadelphia Record.

Primarily, of course, the motive for the proposed change of a three-cent piece was the intrusion of the three-cent coin of our face in a number of places. The utility of a coin of this denomination may be overestimated and a prejudice against it exists, born of past experiences. The little silver piece, however, was undoubtedly a nuisance on account of its diminutive size and the nickel coin, which succeeded it, was the cause of endless confusion through its close resemblance to a dime. The latter defect, however, would be completely remedied if the new coin, as has been suggested in the center, like a Chinese cash.

The usefulness of the new coin would not be limited to the payment of small fares in places which have the three-cent rate. It would be an incentive to many small economies. Numerous articles which now sell for a nickel would probably sell for 3 cents if a coin of that denomination were current. Prices are to some extent made by custom and habit. On the Pacific coast the bill was for many years the smallest unit of exchange, and many articles of little value were sold there for that price, which in the East would be had for a nickel. The Englishman pays two pence for a pint of beer, while here 5 cents is charged for a glass containing less than half that quantity. The difference in the cost of production in the two countries is incomparably less than the difference in price. A single clear of the two-for-a-quarter kind costs 15 cents.

The examples might be multiplied indefinitely. A housewife will readily be able to think of hundreds of instances where a smaller divisor would save money for her when she goes marketing or shopping. And this would be all the more so if the smaller proposal, now before congress, to coin half-cents should be adopted; for what is true of articles whose present price level is a nickel would also be true of articles now usually sold for a cent. The small economies that could be thus effected are by no means negligible. Their sum total throughout the country would run into millions a year.

KNOWN AS THE CHAM- PIDON VIPER KILLER

From the New York Sun.

Henri Anvray, popularly known as "Doc" or the Viper Killer, holds the record for the destruction of the snakes which have recently infested certain districts of France. So great in fact has been the pest of vipers that various municipalities have voted sums of money to be distributed as prizes among the persons killing vipers.

In 1908, Henri Anvray, lured by the prizes offered by the people of Tonnerre, decided to make a profession of viper killing and went about the work in a serious manner. It was easy to kill a snake once in presence of it, but how to charm the snakes out of their hiding places was the question. Anvray studied their habits with such good results that in four months more

FACTORY IN HOLLAND

From the San Francisco Chronicle.

A factory to produce artificial rubber has been established at Ymuiden, the port at the mouth of the North Sea canal. It is said that the company installing this factory has succeeded in producing a substance having the qualities of rubber and also certain special advantages over genuine rubber.

The process is a secret, but the principal ingredient of the product is said to be fresh sea fish, which are brought to Ymuiden in vast quantities by the Dutch fishing fleets. According to reports 15 to 16 per cent of natural rubber is added to the fish, and the result is a substance as flexible and elastic as rubber, but much cheaper—about $1.25 to $1.50 in price, compared with real rubber. The low price of this product will be caused partly by the by-products which are possible, for it is said that much albumin will be made from the fish and that half of the factory is arranged for the manufacture of guano.

It is stated that this artificial rubber can be vulcanized in a short time; that it is benzine-proof and can resist the effect of heat. At first sight the substance much resembles real rubber. A slightly fishy smell betrays the chief ingredient, but it is explained that this will be prevented by extracting the fat of the fish.

For some years hariback has been pretty much cut out in the navy, although it makes a fine ration for hard work and active service. Several tons have been shipped down toward Cuba. Canned beans are good to stick to a hariback's ribs and to keep out the bullets, and the navy has been rushing on to take the place of the little old-time navy beans which have to be soaked some hours to get them soft and well done. Canned beans are pretty good for marching.

STEWART LEADS BY 212; SEVEN COUNTIES MISSING

Parks, Machine Candidate, Ahead Until Midnight--Stewart's Majority in El Paso County Is 2,421

DENVER, Sept. 13. Returns received up to midnight tonight with seven counties missing give Philip R. Stewart a slight lead over Clifford O. Parks for the Republican nomination for governor. The figures are:

Stewart 16,288; Parks 16,076.

Until late tonight Parks was in the lead.

The counties which have made no returns at all from Tuesday's primary are: Teller, Baca, Custer, Douglas, Eagle, Jefferson and Kit Carson. Republican returns are lacking from La Plata county. Several other counties have sent incomplete figures.

Stewart's majority in El Paso county, according to the official count, is 2,421. The count on governor was completed last night, as well as on some county offices that were in doubt. W. P. Kinney beat Robert Kern for county judge by nine votes. Miss Minnie McCall's lead over Miss Laura Leach for county superintendent of schools is 101 votes.

Dunbar F. Carpenter, for district attorney, carried this, the home county of both him and his opponent, W. L. Strachan, by 118 votes. Complete returns from the other six counties in the Fourth judicial district have not been received.

The official count on the Democratic candidates for representative also was completed last night, with the following result: Kavanaugh, 903; Meloy, 896; Radley, 894; Ward, 889; Boyd, 786.

Old Man Mortgages Home to Meet Son; Latter Dies at Sea

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—When William H. Greer of Nashville, Tenn., sent the transport Logan from the coast today, having mortgaged his home and come to San Francisco to join his son, he was shown a basket containing the young man's body. The son, J. W. Greer, who was an examiner in the customs service at Manila, died of fever on the voyage across the Pacific.

The younger Greer recently wrote his father, who is now an old man, that he was ill and would leave the Logan for the continent. Funds were low and the father found it necessary to mortgage the family home to make the journey here.

With an eager throng, he awaited the coming of the ship today. In response to his anxious inquiry, a deck officer told him that his son had died of fever on the voyage across the Pacific.

REPUBLICAN OLD GUARD DOWNED IN NEW MEXICO

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 13.—Headline Senator A. B. Fall's advice given the Republican state convention at its convention here yesterday, that the old guard step aside and give the younger members of the party a voice in the affairs of the newly elected state central committee met today and unanimously chose Herbert W. Clark of Las Vegas as state chairman. Mr. Clark is a lawyer and but 30 years of age. He has been for several years assistant United States attorney. The new chairman is the youngest man ever to serve in that position in the history of New Mexico politics.

PROGRESSIVES WILL CONTROL COMMITTEE

Republicans Will Meet to Organize at Court House This Afternoon

In conformity with the direct primary law, which requires that the county central committee meet to organize within five days after the primary election, the Republican committee will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the district court room to elect officers. The meeting was called by Acting Chairman A. E. Hayes of the now defunct appointive committee, which is superseded by a committee composed of precinct committeemen and women elected at the primary election.

Owing to the failure of the judges to copy off results or to sign the books, the official count by County Clerk Sheldon has been retarded and it will be late this morning before the names of those elected members of the committee are officially determined. The results in practically every precinct were known, however, from the unofficial returns and notices of the meeting were mailed to those affected by Acting Chairman Hayes. Notices were also sent to the successful candidates for county offices who, according to the primary election law, will have a voice in the selection of committee officers.

Indications are that the Progressive Republicans will be in control of the committee by a substantial majority, as they elected more than half the precinct committeemen and women and others named by the assembly are Progressives. However, the Republican organization in the county, the committee will elect a chairman, vice chairman and secretary, and the opinion seems to prevail that the two contesting wings of the party in the primary election will be able to get together on a basis consistent with the position of the Progressives against the old machine.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 13.—Proposals of peace in Mexico have been made to President Madero by Col. R. Gomez Robelo, confidential agent of Orozco, and representative in the United States of the revolutionary party. A letter containing a suggestion for a peace conference was sent from Colonel Robelo a few days ago to the president of the republic. Acting as messenger of the document was Senator Antonio De P. Magana, president of the Democratic anti-revolutionary party of Mexico.

Senator Magana is due to arrive today in Mexico City and present the letter to President Madero. He came here a few days ago and presented to Colonel Robelo credentials from the Mexican department of state. He said that he acted as a peace envoy from the president to the revolutionists in the north. Colonel Robelo, an attorney by profession, and probably the most brilliant of the Orozco followers, changed to be in El Paso, where he was arrested recently on a charge of conspiracy, but acquitted by the United States commissioner after a preliminary hearing.

In his letter to Madero in answer to the propositions made verbally by the envoy, Colonel Robelo sets forth a plan for a peace conference. He proposes that four factions be represented—the government, the revolution, the army and the civilians. In this way he proposes to combine all of the elements at stake. If the president will consent to the conference Robelo believes peace may be secured in the north of Mexico and that the Zapata revolution in the south will become merely a local disturbance.

MADERO HISSSED IN CHAMBER DEPUTIES

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 13.—The name of Madero was hissed today in the chamber of deputies and that of Diaz was cheered by a crowd that picked the galleries. In the streets later disapproval of the president was loudly voiced by throngs who watched the chief executive pass in his carriage. The same throngs called hearty vivas for the deposed Diaz.

LABORER DECLARED SANE; ENTITLED TO FORTUNE

GRAND JUNCTION, Sept. 13.—Denise Bart, 57, who was declared mentally incompetent at Mount Pleasant, Ia., as a result of injuries received in a railroad wreck two years ago, was declared sane by the county court here today. He will leave for Iowa at once, and take possession of a $40,000 estate and $2,500 cash paid by the railroad company as compensation for his injuries. Bart has been working on the streets of Grand Junction as a laborer for the past six months.

FATHER DEPOSED AS HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—As punishment for having beaten his 5-year-old son with a length of garden hose, Charles Hoffman, a ship painter, stands today by court order, deposed from his position as head of his household. The order was entered by Judge Willis of the juvenile court, who constituted Mrs. Hoffman legally head of the house.

WILL BEAT THE BOSSSES TWO TO ONE

Colonel Roosevelt Makes Confident Prediction in Address at Ogden, Utah

LISTENERS COME 200 MILES PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENT IS "SPREADING LIKE WILDFIRE IN EAST," DECLARES T. R.

OGDEN, Utah, Sept. 13.—"We are going to beat the bosses two to one at the polls next November," Colonel Roosevelt prophesied today. He said that in the east the Progressive party "would attend to the bosses," and urged the people of the west to do likewise. While the Progressive movement had originated in the west, he said, it was "spreading like wildfire in the east."

Colonel Roosevelt made his prophecy at the close of his long tour through the northwest, the outcome of which, he said, pleased him greatly. He came today into Utah from Boise, Idaho, speeding on the way at Blackfoot and Pocatello, Idaho. He stopped in Ogden only long enough to address the delegates to the Progressive state convention, then left for Reno, Nev., on his way to the coast.

At Ogden, Colonel Roosevelt attacked "certain men in Utah who are saying that they have given their pledge to President Taft to support him. I do not object to a man becoming an opponent, but I do object to the action of any man who says he is bound by their pledge and then goes back on it." He said that he was not surprised to find among the more reckless of the Mexican people a disposition to belittle our progress, to deny our strength and misrepresent our motives.

"I want to say one word," he began, "about certain men in Utah who are saying that they have given their pledge to President Taft to support him. I do not object to a man becoming an opponent, but I do object to the action of any man who says he is bound by their pledge and then goes back on it." He said that he was not surprised to find among the more reckless of the Mexican people a disposition to belittle our progress, to deny our strength and misrepresent our motives.

RETAILERS NECESSARY, DECLARES LUMBERMAN

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 13.—The federal lumber inquiry, which has been in progress under the leadership of P. E. Robbins, vice president of the White River Lumber company, and W. C. Miles of Seattle, president of the Globe Lumber company, today declared that retailers were necessary in the lumber trade.

MARTIN "GETS OFF THE EARTH" IN 18 SECONDS

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—It took Glenn H. Martin less than 18 seconds to "get off the earth" at the aviation meet today. He won the quick starting event under conditions requiring him to be 20 feet away at a given signal and to start his engine, ascend and cross a line 500 feet distant. His time was 14.4 seconds.

CRIPPLE CREEK MINERS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

CRIPPLE CREEK, Sept. 13.—Two miners, Frank Whitmore and Charles Lund, were nearly killed today on Doctor Jack Pot mine. The men descended into the mine which was filled on the lower levels with carbon dioxide gas. They did not notice the presence of the gas on account of carrying acetone lanterns, and when it commenced to affect them they became confused and signaled the engineer wildly. The engineer hoisted the men to the surface and they were found unconscious in the bucket when they reached the top.

POLITICIAN CONVICTED AS A WHITE SLAVER

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 13.—George E. Marlow, an attorney of Herrick, Idaho, was found guilty today in the United States district court, on four counts charging violations of the white slave law, in transporting two girls from Washington to Idaho. Marlow has been prominent in Shoshone county, Idaho, politics.

INJUNCTION AGAINST PROGRESSIVE SOUGHT

CANON CITY, Sept. 13.—Augustus Pease, Democratic nominee for district judge of the Eleventh judicial district, today filed a petition in the district court for a restraining order to prevent Secretary of State James B. Pease certifying the name of Charles A. Wilkin, Republican candidate for judge, on the Progressive ticket. The Progressives, in county convention last week, agreed to support the Republican county, legislative and district candidates.

AMERICANS IN MORE DANGER INACTIVITY OF FEDERAL TROOPS RESENTED

Madero Movement Through U. S. Territory Increases Rebel Hostility

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 13.—"The American embassy has been informed by John Devine, writing from Cuernavaca, and claiming to be an American enlisted in the Mexican army, that he has been sentenced to death by the federalists and that he is ignorant of the charge against him. The embassy has so far been unable to discover the writer's name among the Mexican soldiers."

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 13.—The attack of General Salazar's rebels on El Tigre today ended in a repulse for the rebels by the small band of federalists garrisoning the camp.

According to word received here tonight, the attack began at 5 o'clock this morning. At 7:30 o'clock Salazar sent a messenger under a flag of truce to the commander of the federalists demanding the surrender of the town to avoid further bloodshed. As no one in the camp had been wounded it was believed that Salazar's request came as the result of loss among his own men.

When the demand for the town's surrender was refused, Salazar renewed the attack and firing continued until 1 o'clock tonight. At that hour Salazar withdrew his force but at midnight he began firing upon the town at long range. The federalists replying to the firing during the day's fighting two federalists were wounded. No Americans were hurt. The rebel loss is unknown.

One rebel was killed on the streets in an attempt by a party of rebels to rush a section of the camp. It is thought their loss in the hills was heavy.

The plant of the El Tigre infirm company was still operating late tonight. Reinforcements for the federal garrison are expected to reach there at midnight. General Salazar is expected to send a force from Agua Prieta south at daylight. A detachment of Rojas' band is reported to be 20 miles north of Colonia Mexico tonight. The remainder are still at Caniza, 12 miles from Douglas.

Americans at El Tigre were notified by the company officials to take no part in the defense of the camp because of the half dozen American women there and almost certain retaliation by the rebels in the event of the town's capture, which would mean a heavy financial loss to the company. The telephone wires were cut about noon today but not until word was received that a force of 180 federalists from Nogales had left Ysabel for El Tigre, 35 miles distant. Salazar's force is said to outnumber greatly the defenders of the camp. Rojas was reported to be at Gallardo ranch, 12 miles from Agua Prieta, late today.

AMERICANS INDIGNANT

Much indignation was expressed here today by Americans with heavy interests in Sonora because of the inactivity of the Mexican federalists. It was asserted that the permission granted the Madero government to transport its troops through American territory for the purpose of putting down the revolution had been greatly increased in the hostility of the rebels to the American in that state and that with a large force of federalists now within easy striking distance of the main body of insurgents, Americans were in even greater jeopardy than heretofore. Officials of the United States government in Douglas expressed openly the belief that General Salazar had no intention of giving battle to the rebels although he has a much superior force and equipment. The Douglas International, a local afternoon newspaper, which has heretofore been a strong supporter of the Madero government, issued today a bitter denunciation of that administration because of federal inactivity, while rebels were looting within a few miles. The complacent attitude of the federal leaders was referred to as a "disgusting farce."

Reports from many points in Sonora indicate that rebel bands are swarming.

BRYAN WILL STUMP ALL THROUGH WEST

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 13.—The itinerary of William J. Bryan's western stumping tour was made public here this afternoon. Starting from Denver, Mr. Bryan will close his western trip September 20 in Wyoming. In time to return to Lincoln by October 5, when he is scheduled to deliver an address from the same platform as Governor Wilson.

Mr. Bryan will tour southern Colorado September 14, speaking at the state fair in Pueblo on the morning of the seventeenth. He will deliver an address in Provo, Utah, the next afternoon and one in Salt Lake City that evening.

He will speak at Los Angeles on the afternoon of September 23 and the next morning at Stockton. He will address the Democratic state convention at Sacramento the same afternoon and will speak September 24 in the evening at San Francisco. The next day he will be the guest of the Civic League, a well-known political organization of Republicans at a noon luncheon, and at night he will address a public meeting at Sacramento.

Reno and Carson, Nev., are his next stops where he will speak September 25. He will address an evening meeting at Ogden, Utah, the next day and will close his campaign in Wyoming September 29, 30 and 31.

EXPRESS COMPANIES WILL DEFY ORDER

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 13.—Express companies operating out of Portland and into "dry" territory, declared today they had received no notice from Governor West to stop sending liquor into the dry zones, and even if they did, they would continue the shipping.

JAPANESE WAR HERO KILLS HIMSELF

General Nogi Takes Own Life as Final Tribute to His Departed Emperor

WIFE MEETS END WITH HIM

Tragic Sacrifice to Ancient Custom by Hero of Port Arthur Shocks Tokio

TOKIO, Sept. 13.—General Count Maresuke Nogi, supreme military councillor of the empire, and his wife, the Countess Nogi, committed suicide tonight in accordance with an ancient Japanese custom, as a final tribute to their departed emperor and friend, Mutsuhito.

The death by their own hands of two famous general and his wife was as dramatic as it was sad. The general cut his throat with a short sword and the countess committed harakiri.

Following the Samurai custom, the couple had carefully prepared their plans for killing themselves and found them so that they would be coincident with the departure forever from Tokyo of the dead emperor.

General Nogi and the countess had attended the funeral services of Mutsuhito at the palace here today, and it was expected they would proceed to Aoyama tonight with the cortege. Instead, however, at the conclusion of the ceremony at the palace they withdrew to their modest home in Akaaka, a suburb of Tokio, and there began their final preparations for death.

First, the general wrote a letter to his new emperor, Yoshihito, which was found beside his body. Then he draped in mourning a portrait of the late emperor, and afterward he and his wife dressed themselves in full Japanese costume and drank a farewell cup of sake from cups which had been presented to them by Mutsuhito.

Wait Calmly for Death

Darkness had fallen and General Nogi and the countess sat and awaited the signal they had agreed upon to announce their leave taking. This was the booming of a single gun in the palace grounds at Tokio, which was to let the people know that the body of the emperor was starting on the funeral car for its last resting place.

As the boom of the gun resounded through the clear, still night, General Nogi arose, and grasping in his hand a short sword, plunged it into his throat, while the countess stabbed herself through the body.

A student who resided in the Nogi home heard the fall of the bodies and rushed into the room.

Lying upon the floor were the bodies of Port Arthur and his wife. Both still were breathing, but their gasping, gasping showed plainly that death was near. The student hurried for aid, but when he returned both the general and the countess were dead.

Creates Sensation

The tragedy created a profound sensation and expressions of sorrow were heard on every hand tonight. (Continued on Page Three.)

TANGLE IN SOUTH DAKOTA SETTLED

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Sept. 13.—Governor Johnson came into South Dakota today to deliver two speeches and lend a hand in an attempt to straighten out the tangle in which Progressives and Republican leaders have become involved. At a meeting between the California executive, Governor Vessey, Senator Crawford, Carl Sherwood, chairman of the Republican state committee, and other political leaders, the situation was thrashed out with pleasing results to the vice presidential candidate.

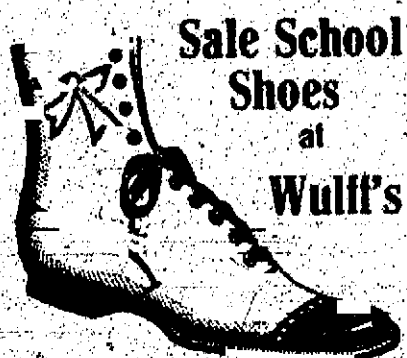

"Everything looks fine in South Dakota," Governor Johnson said after the meetings. "I do not feel apprehensive in the least about the Progressive cause here."

The most important accomplishment of the conference was the decision to make John Sutherland, who backed the Roosevelt primary campaign in the state last spring, assistant to Sherwood. All candidates of the state and congressional tickets have agreed to work together. The ticket is composed of Progressive candidates with the exception of the aspirants for lieutenant governor, Auditor and Congressmen Burke and Martin, who are candidates for reelection. They are regulars, but have agreed to the state ticket harmony plan.

The governor made addresses at Huron and Sioux Falls.

whole raft of you on board—now, children, children, please be quiet.
At this juncture a small boy prostrated himself before the colonel and clasped his arms about the colonel's ankles.

"I'll have to appeal to the marshal for protection," Colonel Roosevelt said as he lifted the boy away. "Any boy who stands up from now on, gets right off the ground."

This warning had its effect, and Colonel Roosevelt managed to go on with his speech.

"I have come out here to the Rocky mountains and the Pacific coast," he said, "for a definite reason. I was asked not to come out here by some of the managers who pointed out that New York state alone has almost as many electoral votes as the states in the Rocky mountains and on the Pacific coast and that the trip would take two or three weeks. But I insisted upon coming because here in the west the Progressive movement originally started. In the east it is spreading like wild fire. It was you who started the movement and I wanted to come out here and thank you for it, and ask you not to surrender your place in the lead."

"It is a matter of regret that in the Republican national convention some of the worst tools of the political machine came from the Rocky mountain states. I want you to attend to them. We're attending to the bosses in the east. We beat the bosses in the primaries, and we're going to beat them two to one at the polls next November."

Progressives Name Ticket.

OGDEN, Utah, Sept. 12.—The Progressive party of Utah held its first convention here today and nominated a state ticket headed by Nephil L. Morris of Salt Lake for governor, and listened to an address by Colonel Roosevelt. The feature of the platform adopted was a plank declaring that "the paramount issue in this campaign is the control of our government and political life by the people themselves, to the end that they may have political and industrial democracy."

The platform also favors the direct primary, workmen's compensation act, presidential preference primary law, initiative and referendum and recall, and a public service commission. The ticket which was completed after Colonel Roosevelt made his address, is as follows, including the names of two women as presidential electors:
For governor—Nephil L. Morris, Salt Lake county.
For congressman—Stephen H. Love, Salt Lake county, Louis Larsen, San Pete county.
For secretary of state—Frank Henderson, Jr., Weber county.
For justice of the supreme court—Judge Ogden Hiles, Salt Lake county.
For attorney general—George W. Lawrence, Salt Lake county.
For state treasurer—O. W. Adams, Cache county.
For state auditor—Walter Adams, Utah county.

For state superintendent of schools (left blank with the understanding that Progressive support A. C. Nelson, present incumbent and Republican candidate for reelection.)
For presidential electors—Mrs. C. E. Coulter, Weber county; Mrs. W. H. DeWolf, Beaver county; C. J. Carpenter, Utah county; Captain Hugo De Prazin, Juab county.

all over the state looking as they go. There are said to be sufficient federal troops at border points to suppress revolution in short order, and a more vicious policy. A band of 80 rebels were within a mile of the border at Horeford, west of here, yesterday and were said to have camped for the night at San Pedro ranch.

Word was brought here today that Edward Haymore, one of the principal merchants in Sonora, had been murdered or taken prisoner by the rebels yesterday while attempting to bring out merchandise from his store at Colonia Mercedes, the Mormon colony which was recently looted by Salazar. Haymore was robbed of merchandise valued at $2,500 which he was trying to bring to the American side several days ago. He returned for another load and today Mormon refugees from his colony found his wagons and the partly destroyed harness of his horses about nine miles southeast of Douglas. No trace of Haymore was found.

General W. S. Schuyler, commanding the department of California, said today that Rojas had informed him that he had "postponed his attack on Agua Prieta in deference to the wishes of the American government."

INTERVENTION EXPECTED SOON IN SANTO DOMINGO

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The United States is about to intervene in Santo Domingo. Warships will be dispatched at once to the island. A revolution has broken out which threatens American and other foreign interests.

The customs house of the island controlled by the United States by treaty must be protected against seizure by the revolutionists. Further than that, advice today conveyed news of so serious nature that the state department began preparations for immediate activity.

The gunboat Wheeling at Guantanamo, the gunboat Tacoma at Bluefields, Nicaragua, and the protected cruiser Des Moines at Key West, are maintaining a complement of marines and a full crew of blue-jackets, are the most available forces for the work. The gunboat Petrel is now in Santo Domingo waters.

The latest outbreak is believed to be prompted by the prime movers in the recent intervention which culminated in the battle of Trujillo, August 4, when the place was taken by the rebels. Although the rebellious sentiment is supposed to be widely disseminated the focus is between Puerto Plata on the north coast and Sanchez. News reached here today of a sanguinary battle within the last 48 hours at a small town in that section.

Officials of the state and navy department have decided on further observation and to await developments of the next day or two before dispatching warships to the island.

EVELYN W. BREAKS THREE WORLD MARKS

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Three world's records were broken today by Evelyn W. in winning the free-for-all pace at the Grand Circuit meeting.

Her time for the mile, 2:00 1/2, in the second heat, was the fastest heat ever paced by a mare, the fastest heat by pacers of either sex, and the race constituted the fastest two heats ever paced by a mare. The time by quarters: 1:11.00%, 1:50, 2:00 1/2.

The first mile was in 2:03 1/2, last half mile in 39 1/2.

It was The Gal that forced the bay mare to extend herself, the two speeding side by side around the mile circle. Evelyn W. was the first to the wire in each heat by a narrow margin.

The free-for-all pace was the feature event of the closing day's program.

Other results:
-The 2:06 pace, purse $1,000, was won by Don Prontor, Wydrad, second; Jones Gentry, third. Best time, 2:03 1/2.
-The 2:15 trot, purse $1,000, was won by James W. Baron Aberdeen, second; Miss Davis, third. Best time, 2:14 1/2.
-The free-for-all pace, purse $1,000, was won by Evelyn W.; The Gal, second; Independence Boy, third. Best time, 2:00 1/2.

TWO WORLD'S RECORDS SMASHED AT OVERLAND

DENVER, Sept. 12.—Claiborne Eaton of Fayette, Mo., won the Denver handicap shoot, which closed at Overland park today. He made a score of 97 out of 100 shooting but five men on the first 25 targets and another in the second round, making 98 out of 100 in the shoot off.

Carl Nelson of Rawlins, Wyo., won the Denver Post cup for the championship of Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico, with a score of 91 out of 100.

Two world's records were broken at the meet. W. R. Crosby of Fallon, Ill., made a score of 98 out of 100 from the 25-yard line, and Tom Bailey of Missouri made 96 out of 100 double targets.

SPLENDID PROGRAM CLOSSES CANON FAIR

CANON CITY, Sept. 12.—The third and last day of the racing meet of the Association County Fair and Driving association closed here today with a splendid program. The business houses and schools closed today, so that all could attend the races and cowboy sports at the fair grounds.

Results:
-The 2:24 pace, purse $300—Cleo Dillon, first; Diana Wilkes, second; Helen Wilkes, third. Time, 2:19 1/4.
-Free-for-all trot or pace, purse $200—Orange Hal, first; Elsie Allen, second; Rocky Kid, third; Daybreak, fourth. Time, 2:17 1/4.

ROTING IN COLD REGIONS

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 13.—The expected outbreak in the Cabin Creek district of the Kanawha coal field where 1,200 West Virginia militiamen, under command of Major James Pratt are maintaining martial law, came today when the stables of the Ohley coal company at Bailey were destroyed by fire and an attempt was made to fire the triple of the same company. Twenty-five militiamen from the Clarkburg company, under command of Lieutenant Cochrane, drove off the men and it is believed that some were wounded.

Lieutenant Cochrane and his men fought the stable fire for half an hour but the building had been fired at so many points that it was impossible to save it or its contents, including 14 horses and mules.

Letters found today at the office of the Muskogee Coal company and in the homes of a number of employees warned the company and the men that if the mine was started or if the men attempted to go to work, the buildings would be dynamited and the workings blown up. No effort had been made to start the mine.

WILL EXTEND INQUIRY INTO CAMPAIGN FUNDS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Chairman Clapp announced today that the senate campaign expenditures committee is ready to extend its investigations into the realms of contributions to President Taft's 1908 campaign fund by aspirants for ambassadorships if Representative A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania makes formal request that the committee look into the resignation of Dr. David Jayne Hill as ambassador to Austria-Hungary.

In the records of the national committee for 1908, several contributions to the Taft 1908 fund by American foreign ministers and ambassadors were disclosed. Lars Anderson, minister to Belgium, gave $25,000; Whiteclaw Reid, ambassador to Great Britain, $10,000; Robert Bacon, ambassador to France, $5,000; Richard C. Kerens, ambassador to Austria-Hungary, $10,000.

Myron T. Herrick, now ambassador to France, was then chairman of the Ohio state committee, and as such turned over to the national committee a total of $50,000 for the campaign.

A FRIEND OF FAIRNESS

THE other day a well-known attorney in conversation with one of the judges of the Colorado Supreme court, in reference to the recent election returns, asked:

"What is there about Ben. Griffith that makes him lead in all the elections in which he is a candidate?"

"He's a good fellow, with a fund of good common sense and nerve enough to do the right thing every time," replied the jurist. And this was a tribute to Colorado's popular attorney general. This week Griffith has been fighting for the people in the supreme court of the state to protect the initiative and referendum from the malicious and technical attack of the corporations.

To the credit of Governor Shafroth it can be said that he rendered material assistance to Mr. Griffith.

A local court in Denver declared the amendment unconstitutional because it had not been published in the house journal, which reaches less than 1,000 people in the state. It was carried by a vote of 60,000 two-years ago.

And, with all this, there are those who cannot conceive why the people resent the interference of the courts where technicalities are interposed for the purpose of undoing what an overwhelming majority of the voters have done. There was a time we call it the dark ages now when it was claimed that "the king could do no wrong."

The king was human, he was prone to err as all humans are, very often he was a degenerate man and drunk with power, but with all this the people fanatically worshipped the old theory. Then the change came. Men with reason refused to admit that kings were Divine or that they operated by, or possessed Divine rights.

There were "reactionaries" and stand-patters in those days. These men arose in their might and demanded that the progressives who dared to question the custom and usage of ages—the revered institutions of years—should be put to death. Some of those unfortunate heretics of progress were put to death, but we do not believe in the Divine right of kings now.

We must admit that for a calm, placid, well-oiled and smooth condition, commend us to a machine government. There can be but little friction because there is but one side with anything to say.

Such a condition is, however, unbearable to the man who believes that he is a part of the government and that it is his duty to play his part. The machine method depresses and destroys the spirit of Americanism. It means that the leader must be exalted and the follower humbled. Of course the leader never complains, but the follower has become something of a "kicker" in recent years and it begins to appear as if the joy had only fairly started. When it gets well under way nine-tenths of the people will be in-urgent and the remaining tenth will be found trying to let go of some of the things they picked up so easily.

Men like Ben. Griffith are attending the people an opportunity. He is acting in the capacity of servant and not master and such action explains his popularity with the people.

One of these days Colorado people will determine that a man like Ben. Griffith is needed in Washington to play his part in the halls of congress. He is a young man with a future before him. His heart is right and this argues that he will make no great mistakes.

MODERN TERRORS

ABOUT two years ago a lazy, dreamy, insidious disease manifested itself in the South. It was known as the "hook worm." Of course it was a germ disease and the particular germ in this instance was, indeed, a mischievous one. It was so insidious in its affect upon humanity, that, if undisturbed, the colored man's love for rag time and sent him forth ambling along to some funeral march.

Devoted husbands were transformed to sleep-walkers. They snored and dreamed while the helpmeet bent over the washtub to provide a living for them. The disease was so soothing that river boat men affected by it became too indolent to swear. Conditions were soothing, but dangerous.

John D. Rockefeller, inventor of Standard Oil, became worried. Perhaps these people in the South would get so sleepy, under the soothing influence of the sleeping malady, that they would neglect to light the lamps and then where would the profit go?

And distinguished high-brows in the medical fraternity began to worry. Mr. Rockefeller, who was the first to worry and kept it up, was good enough to have a committee of eminent-physicians appointed to determine what the hook worm really was and what would kill it or induce it to depart from its ravage upon the ambition and industry of man.

This committee examined a number of afflicted individuals. They said it was a germ that preyed upon the ambitions of men; that it created a craving for sleep almost eternal sleep, and that it would in time destroy the country if not checked in its dreamy devastation. This committee, selected by Mr. Rockefeller, also determined upon a cure for the disease. What would you think it was?

KEROSENE.

Who sells kerosene?

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

But to the point history is repeating itself.

Statisticians have discovered that the number of farm mortgages have increased materially during the past census decade. Why?

Because so many farmers have mortgaged their homes to purchase automobiles. What propels automobiles?

Gasoline.

Who sells gasoline?

John D. Rockefeller.

There you have it again. Agents of Mr. Rockefeller, so it is claimed, placed money in all the banks in the agricultural states to be loaned to farmers at 6 per cent interest so that the poor farmers might be enabled to mortgage their farms and enjoy the use of the automobile. It was undoubtedly prompted by either pious or philanthropic motives.

These automobiles use gasoline and lubricating oil. More than this it is said that Rockefeller's millions have touched the capitalization of the companies manufacturing the gasoline wagons.

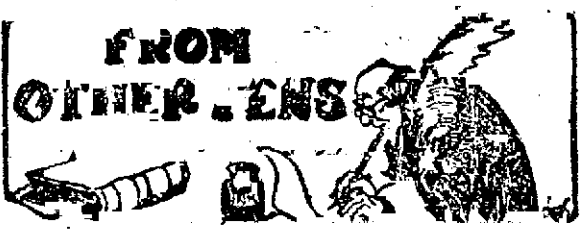

Before many years have passed these farmers will be found eating hay and walking to town. The question arises, which way would a fellow jump to miss Rockefeller?

NEXT LEGISLATURE

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN NEWS has made a canvass of the state to determine the political cast of the people nominated as candidates for the house and senate. The returns received indicate that the Progressives will predominate at a ratio of better than five to one.

It is also claimed that the Republican State Central committee will be progressive by a good strong majority. Under the present law this committee consists of the chairmen of the county central committee in each county and one woman member selected by the county central committee.

These returns all point to a victory for Progressive principles, even if the Colorado Fuel and Iron company did make an effort to dictate the election of the candidates.

THE RED CROSS MEMORIAL.

From the Boston Evening Transcript.
Two rather well known men, one of the Red Cross memorial building which must be long before a feature of the general memorial plans in Washington. There are not many memorials to women in the country. The $500,000 building whose construction was advanced one step by the recent congress will mark for all time the nation's appreciation of the noble work done by women in the Red Cross and similar organizations.

INTELLIGENT VOTING.

From the Chicago Tribune.
Voters should prepare themselves for the November election by learning how to vote a right ticket. The habit of voting a ticket "from top to bottom" is making the party circle and "letting it go at that" is dangerous. It is a habit which has been fostered by unscrupulous politicians to secure the election of incompetent and dishonest men to minor positions through the "regularity" of the voters or the popularity of the leading candidate.

To this habit, as much as to any other element, is due the general inefficiency and dishonesty of minor officers in the United States.
On last year the voters in a certain community indulged in picking out the best qualified man of all parties. Some citizens have been so progressive as to abolish the party circle, and some have gone so far as to abolish the party column.

Unhappily, unfortunately, has not adopted this reform and throws the burden of intelligent voting upon the voters.

The minor officers are frequently of more importance to the average man than are the governorship and the presidency. So he should be careful that in registering his preference for Roosevelt, Taft or Wilson he does not saddle on himself by carelessness or accident a horde of parasitic politicians.

NOT THE LEAVEN.

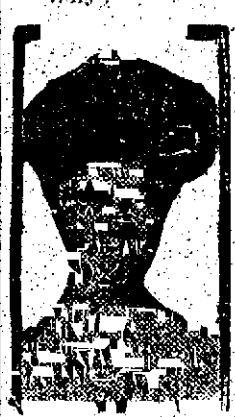

From the Boston Evening Transcript.
The impression that the unrest in British India, of which we heard so much a year or two ago, and of which we hear comparatively little today, was the outcome of a wave of English learning and literature among its people, will scarcely stand the test of the examination of the progress of education among the 212,000,000 people included in the census of the Indian empire. The British authorities are now studying the immense mass of detail which the census enumerators have turned in, and they find that, speaking for India generally, only 580 per cent thousand of its inhabitants can read or write in their vernaculars. It has also ascertained that the aggregate of the number of persons literate or bharmin English in 1901 was 1,670,387. This means an increase from 58 to 25 miles, and from seven to ten females per 10,000 of the population since 1901. Among these nearly 1,700,000 English literates must be included the European and Eurasian. Of nearly 4,000,000 Christians, however, only 385,000 can read or write English. The Hindus, who make the most trouble, have the largest number of English literates of any of the many races of India. Even among them, however, the proportion of those knowing English is so small as to raise doubts concerning the effect of English intellectual training on their politics. Only about four-tenths of one per cent of the Brahmin Hindus can be said to have a knowledge of English, the ratio being as 1,000,000 is to 217,000,000. The Mussulmans present even a smaller ratio, for of their nearly 67,000,000 only about 180,000 have what can be called, even in the most liberal sense, a knowledge of English. A little leaven will not make a lump, but the English-speaking inhabitants of India seem too few to be a sufficient leaven for the long-continued agitation against British rule.

Improving One's Aim

By RUTH CAMERON.

Almost everyone in this world is trying in some way to improve his condition, to earn more money, to be a better citizen, to win some desirable place in his little world, to enlarge his circle of friends. About half of us are failing.

What a good eye you must have! I commented to one of these men after the game.

"I don't think so," he said. "Didn't you notice how terrible I threw at first? But you see, I watched myself to see just where I was falling and tried to correct it. I was overshooting at first so I deliberately tried to go lighter. The trouble with you people was that you just threw haphazard. You could have done just as well as I if you had really tried. Didn't you see that Mrs. S. threw just too far to the right every time? If she had only been liberally thrown more to the left she would have scored right straight along."

This young man is successfully carrying through a difficult business situation in which older heads than his have failed.

Do you wonder?

"I don't. It is evident that he carries his philosophy of bean-bag into business life. And it succeeds in one case just as it does in the other."

"Tell me, are you improving your aim as definitely as you can at each throw?"

"Oh, yes, failing to score because you make the same needless mistakes round after round in the game of life."

"I am not a good mixer," a young man said to himself a few years ago after he had been studying why he failed to make as high a score as he desired. "I can learn to get along with my fellow men more successfully and I will. I'll make a definite study of the matter."

Today this man is a highly successful commercial traveler and his ability to "mix" with all sorts of people is considered one of his biggest assets.

Just where is your aim bad? Just where are you failing to score?

Are you overshooting or undershooting? Are you losing efficiency by inability to "mix" well, or by taking too little care of your health, or by lack of education, or how?

"The trouble with you people is that you just throw haphazard," said the successful young man. It is the trouble with most of the failures in the world.

"Know thyself" in all its meanings is just as much the motto of success today in America as it was some hundreds of years ago in Athens.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON

BY GEORGE FITCH,
Author of "At Good Old Siwash"

Hiram W. Johnson of California, who is a candidate for the position of substitute annihilator on the Bull Moose ticket, is a heavily built roadster with small, prominent features, dark hair, a pair of rufous spectacles, a brilliant chin and a voice of great mellow color.

Mr. Johnson, who has left a belt which he has already won in order to remember the pile in the presidential campaign, is a man who is so fond of peace that he never fights with anything but his head, feet, fists, elbows and teeth. He uses them all when speaking and when he is describing the frequency of national convulsions and railroad attentions his voice assumes a deep, hoarse quality with traces of a growl. Striking up trouble is his specialty and exhorting harmony is his recreation. Whenever he rose in the memorable life-lifting in Chicago last June and made a few hoarse, superheated, detonating and explosive remarks, strong men from all parts of the Union arose and rounded each other, though they had never before strangers in a minute before.

Mr. Johnson belongs to the great family of Johnsons which has been busy writing, presiding, vice-presiding, governing, splitting and white-washing ever since history began.

He is about 45 years of age and for many years practiced law quietly in San Francisco, picking up a sparkling adjective whenever he found one and flung it for future reference. When Attorney Heney was shot during the Reaf trial, Mr. Johnson took his place and expressed his sentiments regarding vice in such good English that he was nominated for governor two years ago. When he won he opened the state house door and painfully kicked the Southern Pacific railroad out of the state government, roll by roll. Since then he has been doing other little odd governing jobs and has made California an unprofitable place for the gum shoe politician as a red hot stove would be.

Mr. Johnson is a hot-headed, double-flitted progressive, who would rather progress over the opposition than around it and if elected vice president, he will have to be equipped with check reins, handcuffs, mittens, shock absorbers and Maxim silencers in order to keep him as dead as etiquette demands during his four years' term.

NO. 7 AMBROSE PARE

Ambrose Pare, the great French surgeon, is a splendid example of a man of close observation, patient application and indefatigable perseverance. He was the son of a barber at Laval, in Mayenne, where he was born, in 1560. His parents were so poor that they had to send him to school with the cure of the village, hoping that under that learned man he might pick up an education for himself.

The cure, however, kept him so busily engaged in grooming his mule and in other menial offices that the boy found no time for learning. While in his service it happened that the celebrated Rhinologist, Cotot, came to operate on one of the cure's ecclesiastical brethren. Pare was present at the operation and was so much interested in it that he is said to have from that time formed the determination of devoting himself to the art of surgery.

Leaving the cure's household service, Pare apprenticed himself to a barber's surgeon, named Vilet, under whom he learned to let blood, draw teeth and perform the minor operations. After four years' experience of this kind he went on to Paris to study at the school of anatomy and surgery, meanwhile maintaining himself by his trade of barber.

Pare afterwards succeeded in obtaining an appointment as assistant to the Hotel Dieu, where his conduct was so exemplary, and his progress so marked, that the chief surgeon, Goupi, entrusted him with the charge of the patients, whom he could not himself attend to. After the usual course of instruction, Pare was admitted a master barber surgeon and shortly after was appointed to a charge with the French army, under Montmorency in Piedmont.

Pare was not a man to follow in the ordinary rut of his profession, but brought the resources of an ardent and original mind to bear upon him daily. Diligently thinking out for himself the relation of diseases and their remedial remedies. Before his time the wounded suffered much more at the hands of their surgeons than they did at those of their enemies. To stop bleeding from gunshot wound, the barbarous expedient was resorted to of dressing them with boiling oil. Hemorrhage was also stopped by searing the wound with a red hot iron; and when amputation was necessary, it was performed with a red-hot knife.

At first Pare treated wounds according to the approved methods but, fortunately, on one occasion running short of boiling oil, he substituted honey, and excellent results followed. He was in a great deal of doubt as to whether he should have done wrong in adopting this treatment, but was greatly relieved next morning on finding his patients comparatively comfortable, while those whose wounds had been treated in the usual way, were writhing in torment.

Such was the casual origin of one of Pare's greatest improvements in treatment of a gunshot wound, and he proceeded to adapt the emollient treatment to all future cases. Another still more important improvement was his employment of a ligature in tying arteries to stop hemorrhage, instead of actual cautery. Pare, however, met with the usual fate of innovators and reformers. His practice was denounced as heretical and dangerous, unprofessional and empirical, and old surgeons banded themselves together to resist its adoption. They reproached him for his want of education, more especially for his ignorance of Latin and Greek, and they assailed him with quotations from ancient writers, which he was unable either to verify or refute.

But the best answer to Pare's assailants was the success of his practice. The wounded soldiers called out everywhere for Pare, and he was always at their service. He tended them carefully and affectionately, and he usually took leave of them with the words, "I have dressed you, now God cure you." After three years' active service as army surgeon, Pare returned to Paris with such a reputation that he was at once appointed surgeon and ordinary to the king. The rest of his life was occupied in study, in self-improvement, in study, and in good deeds. Urged by some of the learned among the contemporaries, he placed on record the results of his surgical experience in 28 books, which were published by him at different times.

NEXT WEEK—SEVEN FAMOUS MASSACRES.

C. F. & I. CO. SAID TO PLAN RECAPITALIZATION

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The Colorado Fuel & Iron company, according to rumors, is considering recapitalization in order that payments may be made to the amount of 72 per cent of back dividends on the $200,000,000 preferred stock. The anxiety of the Colorado authorities that the company re-adjust its capital is said to be the reason for the contemplated move.

The Rockefeller are said to control large interests in the company and are also credited with holding more than $20,000,000 worth of the Colorado Industrial stock.

The first move of the plan under consideration, it is said, will be the issuance of $45,000,000 of first and refunding mortgage bonds, $30,000,000 more, it is reported, will be issued later. This would meet all existing bonds and those due later and provide for the growth of the business as well. The company at present is spending $2,500,000 in doubling the capacity of its open hearth plant. Since July 1, 1912, the preferred stock has gone up 20 points and the common stock in the last three weeks has advanced 5 points.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

SEPTEMBER 14, 1882.
This was one of the warmest days that had been experienced during the year.

There was considerable activity in the real estate line. There was more demand for houses and cottages to rent than for some months past.

Four members of the police force published a statement to the effect that the charge that they had received hush money from the keeper of a local card room was a base falsehood.

The Crowell Hose company passed a resolution enlarging the water mains and increasing the number of alarm boxes, rather than purchasing a chemical engine.

SPRINGS RESIDENTS WILL ATTEND FAIRS

Celebrations at Pueblo and Calhan Will Attract Many From Here

Colorado Springs will be well represented both at the El Paso county fair which is to be held at Calhan, and the state fair to be held at Pueblo, next week. Plans to secure a large representation of business men and residents are being made by special committees appointed by the Chamber of Commerce, through the merchants division.

The Pueblo state fair will open on Monday and continue through the week. An automobile run is being arranged from Colorado Springs for one of the days of the fair, and already a large number of local business men have signified their intention of joining the excursion. Many residents of this city have been planning to spend one or two days at the state fair, and it is believed most of these will arrange to go on the day planned for the Chamber of Commerce excursion. The railroads have announced special rates for the week, and a great many people will take advantage of them to make the trip over the Denver & Rio Grande, Santa Fe or Colorado & Southern. It is probable that special rates will also be announced for Chamber of Commerce day by some of the automobile touring companies.

A Chance to Cooperate.
Pueblo has on many occasions cooperated with Colorado Springs, and this is an excellent occasion to show the friendly spirit which exists in this city toward its sister city.

For several years the business men of Colorado Springs have made a trip to the county fair at Calhan. This year the fair is to be held somewhat earlier than usual. It will open Wednesday and continue through Saturday. Friday has been designated as Colorado Springs Day. It is expected that arrangements will be made for a special train, at reduced rates over the Rock Island to run on Friday.

The exhibition at Calhan this year will be the best collection of El Paso county's agricultural products ever gathered together and it will be well worth seeing. Besides the Calhan people are arranging for some special entertainment features for this day. In addition to the crowd which will make the trip by train, there will be a large automobile delegation to Calhan.

It is probable that arrangements will also be made to have a Colorado Springs representation at the Elbert county fair, and other fairs in eastern Colorado this month. Special invitations have been extended to the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce to send a delegation to the Colorado-New Mexico fair, to be held at Durango the last week this month.

Any persons desiring to join with these excursions are requested to communicate with the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Civic League Holds Important Meeting

Termining with items of importance, the meeting of the Civic League yesterday was punctuated with subjects that held the interest of those present every minute.

Considerable was said about the household nuisance and it was decided that some means should be taken early in the spring to prevent this pest.

Announcement was made of the lectures to be given by Dr. Agnes Dittson to the Colorado Springs school teachers and others on the subject of sex education as pertaining to children. It was said that the lectures will be given under the auspices of the Civic League and should be attended by all women who are interested in this movement.

Mrs. Kerr spoke at length on the advisability of all members of the league studying the city charter to assist them in their work of helping the general progress of the city. Mrs. Kerr also offered suggestions regarding the preferential system of voting that would assist those present in arriving at logical conclusions on this subject.

Mrs. Sturgis followed the remarks of Mrs. Kerr with statements relative to different systems of beautifying cities. Dr. Spencer read a paper prepared by Mrs. Finley, on the subject of the school nurse.

SOPHS BEAT FRESHMEN IN ANNUAL CLASS SCRAP

If the freshmen had only had the same discipline of the sophs the annual class scrap might have ended differently than it did yesterday morning as they were able to muster their full strength and in point of enthusiasm and courage were fully the equals of their older rivals. The fray lasted only 15 minutes, being called off then by the older classmen to prevent further casualties and inasmuch as the sophs were still held the flag Captain Bowers of the football team declared them the victors.

Perhaps one reason for the display of force on the part of the under classmen was the ruling recently made by the faculty that there should be no kidnapping of first year men as has been practiced in the past. The criticism of outsiders being responsible for the order.

From now on until Washington's birthday when hostilities between the two classes end for all time the fur will fly and the battered freshmen will endeavor to even up for the black eyes and other painful mementos of yesterday's clash.

TELLS OF COLLEGE WORK

The students employment bureau of Colorado college is fully described in the current number of the "Review of Reviews." The article also tells how a student worked his way through college. A cut of the local institution appears with the article.

Diamonds and Cash Stolen From Train

The local police have been asked to trace a light gray champagne skin jewel bag containing jewels and money to the total value of $1,600 which disappeared from a Pullman car on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad between Pueblo and this city. The owner of the jewels, left them in the woman's washroom, but when she returned a moment later they had disappeared. It is thought probable that a woman who left the train here and immediately boarded the night Rock Island train for the east took them. The bag contained a diamond brooch with 12 diamonds in it, $200 in cash, a 32-bar pearl pin with a diamond in the center and edged with pearls, and a platinum chain with a diamond pendant.

FOUR GRADUATES MADE MEMBERS OF FACULTY

Four graduates of Colorado college are this year enrolled as members of the faculty of that institution. Walter M. Jamieson of the class of 1910 succeeds Dr. M. Woodbridge as instructor in the department of Romance languages. W. W. Cort who graduated with honors in 1909 and who has been doing post graduate work at the University of Illinois, will teach in the biology department. Guy Clark of last year's class, succeeds Orrie Stewart in the chemistry department, and Miss Lols Smith also of last year's class takes Miss Gilbert's place as assistant in the biology laboratory.

The other changes in the teaching force are C. C. Heck formerly of the University of Nebraska succeeds Mr. Porter as professor of physics, and Dr. Lester B. Jenkins takes the place of H. L. Kling as professor of history.

The enrollment this year for the freshmen class is 183 and new students are registering every day. Monday will mark the formal opening of college for this year. On that day the faculty will appear in cap and gown at chapel.

Sam Wah has purchased the restaurant formerly owned by M. A. Leek 1124 E. Huerfano and it is now open for business. First-class Chinese food, chop suey and short orders. DAY AND NIGHT.

BIBLE INSTITUTE WILL BEGIN HERE TOMORROW

Beginning tomorrow a Bible institute will be held at the First Presbyterian church the teachers being the Rev. Ford C. Ottman and Dr. Rev. A. C. Gaebelein. Dr. Gaebelein has been here in courses of Bible lectures on two former occasions, and has been successful. He is the author of several books among them being "The Prophecy of Daniel and The Lord of Glory." He also is the author of "Our Hope" a magazine. Dr. Ottman is equally noted as a Bible teacher and lecturer and was the leading figure in the Stoney Brook assembly held at Long Island, N. Y.

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock Dr. Gaebelein will speak at the Immanuel Lutheran church and at 3:30 in the afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Ottman will preach for the Rev. John Y. Gaart at the Second Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow.

FEEL SHAKY, BILIOUS, HEADACHY, OR CONSTIPATED? TAKE CASCARETS

Stomach troubles! Always trace them to lazy liver, delayed, fermenting food in the lower bowels, causing biliousness, constipation, flatulence, and the generation in the bowels, instead of being carried out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, sickening headache.

Cascarets remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the bile and constipation poison move on and out of the bowels. The effect is almost instantaneous. Ladies whose sensitive organisms are especially prone to sick headaches, need not suffer, for they can be quickly cured by Cascarets. One taken tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep you head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular, and make you feel bright and cheerful for months. Children need Cascarets, too, they love them because their taste is good and never gripe or sicken.

"I was so crippled with rheumatism I could not dress without help, and had kidney trouble for years," started being Foley Kidney Pills and now of my trouble has left me and I do not feel that I ever had rheumatism. I rest well all night, and though 59 years old, can now do the work of a man of 35 years. I would like to be the means of others getting benefit from Foley Kidney Pills." The Robinson Drug Co.

A search for relatives of Charles Matey, who died here Wednesday, revealed a brother, Fritz Matey, in Chicago. The dead man had destroyed all letters that might lead to the identity of relatives, but the information was obtained from Mr. Morrison, proprietress of the Brookside hotel. The body will be sent to Chicago for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. P. McNulty are entertaining their son, Paul, from Wichita, Kan.

The Congregational Sunday school has adopted the graded lessons to begin October 1.

Having secured a position in a bakery in Los Angeles, L. A. Beck will leave for the coast Monday.

Leaving yesterday for Salt Lake City, David Winterstein and sister, Elizabeth, will attend the University of Utah there.

Starting at 5:30 o'clock this morning the Congregational church and Sunday school will enjoy a picnic in Station park.

Among those who left Thursday were Mrs. Sadie Pattison, and sons, Floyd and Jesse, who will make their home in Santa Cruz, Cal.

Bert McKinzie, Jr. starting friends here. He is from Provo, Utah, and

Mr. Cross as Lancelot, the musician, gives a delightful delineation of a character very difficult to portray. His performance is artistic and finished and shows that this conscientious actor devotes much study to his art. His piano playing is a real delight and his musical ability makes him ideal for the part.

The staging was excellent and re-produced with conscientiousness and intelligent regard for detail. The confirmed pessimist, the chronic groucher, as well as those who enjoy a quaint and charming comedy romance, will find "Merely Mary Ann" a wonderful cure for the blues and a pleasant evening's entertainment.

And note our prices. Phone Main 200 for reservations. Fine movie matinee this week today.

Next week we give "Mrs. Tupples Telegram" a farce comedy of the highest order. This means a night of good, clean fun.

You can look forward to the arrival of "Ainsworth Arnold," a special Burns engagement for an indefinite stay, during which time he will take the lead in some of the finest productions ever given west.

Remember, the Burns has every possible convenience for its patrons. Always clean and the best of ventilation. The music always good and varied. Phone 300 at once.

Remember, Saturday matinee.

VADEVILLE AT THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE NEXT WEEK

Sullivan and Considine's high-class vaudeville will be seen at the Grand Opera house next week, opening Monday, September 16, with matinee daily. Colorado Springs has been without high-class vaudeville for over 20 weeks.

The management cannot help but feel with great success next week. Six complete acts will be seen on the bill.

Each and every act being a feature by itself.

Popular prices prevailing at each performance.

No thrashy moving pictures will be seen, as the management will put all expense on real acts.

Only one vaudeville is offered

WOMAN FINDS BABY FLOATING DOWN CREEK

The body of a newly born baby girl was found floating in a small, wooden mineral water box, floating down Fountain creek, near Barr's burr stand, west of Colorado City, yesterday afternoon. The body was discovered by a woman who was camping along the creek at that point, and the sheriff's office and the Colorado City police were notified. They turned the body over to the county physician. There is no clue as to the identity of baby.

The chorus of High school girls under the direction of Miss Anna Briggs will sing at tomorrow's service, regarding for the winter at that time. They will be served at the close of the afternoon, and all women are cordially invited to attend the service.

Much success is attending the work of the association in disposing of season tickets for the Star entertainment course which will begin in October. About 100 of the 1500 tickets necessary to place in order the course, yet remain to be sold. Within a few days the association expects selling the Duane theater's season tickets for the course.

Chronic Ulcers Mean Bad Blood

If outside influences were responsible for chronic ulcers, then external applications and simple cleanliness would be a curative treatment. But trouble is always in the blood, which has become unhealthy and diseased and keeps the sore open by continually discharging into it impurities as infectious matter. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., make the place to scab over temporarily, but the blood is not made purer by such treatment and soon the inflammation and discharge will return and the sore be as bad or worse than before. S. S. S. heals sores by going down into the blood and removing the impurities and germs which are responsible for the place. S. S. S. thoroughly purifies the circulation and in this way destroys the source of every chronic ulcer. In addition S. S. S. enriches this vital fluid and assists nature in overcoming the bad effects of a chronic ulcer. Bod on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

Denver Country Club In Lead For Golf Cup

The Denver Country club, by defeating the Colorado Springs Golf club, 3 to 2, yesterday afternoon, has gained a lead of one point in the race for the Antlers trophy. This year's play again this morning, meeting the Colorado Golf club, also of Denver. In the afternoon the Colorado Golf club will play the Colorado Springs Golf club.

Yesterday's matches were hard fought, especially the one between L. Bromfield, who won the championship last week, and W. K. Jewett. Jewett won all square and two to play, but the champion came away with a burst of speed, winning the last two holes in a 4 and a 3 and finishing 2 to 1. Jewett's fight, holding the championship to the last hole, attracted much favorable comment.

The scores for the Antlers trophy are as follows:

Rats Frank Schulte Uses and Breaks Are Peculiar

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Frank Schulte, the heavy-hitting outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, breaks 50 bats a year, it is said, so that this particular home-run hitter is something more than a mere fence breaker. The bats he uses are of ash, well seasoned, with an unusually small grip—small, indeed, that his fellow players are apt to look with scorn upon his private woodpile, save when he begins to face them out. Some grips are rather uncommon, although some of the best batsmen the game has seen used them, notably Cy Seymour when he was at his best.

Cy had a small pair of hands, which interfered with his work as a pitcher, but not as a batter and outfielder. Cy was the corner stone of that famous

Prospects for Crimson (Good but Start Is Late)

BOSTON, Sept. 13.—Harvard's football candidates will be a week behind their rivals when they start the fall campaign at Soldiers field Monday. Prospects for a successful team are exceedingly bright, but the late start of the work at the stadium leaves but a week before the college opens for conditioning work, and a scant two weeks before the first game with Maine, September 28.

It is expected that the new line squad at Cambridge that the new line allowing an additional down to gain the required 10 yards in rushing is going to favor the Crimson squad, as it will have at least two sets of husky backs, all of whom are capable of plugging the line for consistent gains. Wendell, Brickley, Hardwick and Graustein are all good ground gainers through the line and will make the most of the new regulations.

All of 50 men are expected to report to Coach Haughton and his large corps of assistants, and this number may be increased to 100. The veterans will be expected to show up with the "green" men, and hard work will be begun immediately. Of the men who played against Yale last fall, seven were lost by graduation—Captain Fisher, T. J. Campbell, T. H. Frothingham, E. C. Huntington, F. C. Leslie, R. S. Potter and L. D. Spill.

Penbrook and Whitcomb, two of the 1911 freshman team, will be out, and fighting for the place. Trumbull, also of last year's freshman team, is another big man who will play either guard or tackle on the squad. Another still is Maguire, who played a fine game during part of last season on the varsity squad, and will be in good shape this year. He is the heaviest man on the squad.

Parmenter made good at center last year, beating out the veteran Huntington for the place, and should have no difficulty in retaining his old position again this season. Wigglesworth of the freshman team a year ago, is also a husky who is out for the place.

The Yale game this year comes at New Haven, but there will be big games at home with Dartmouth and Princeton, to say nothing of those with Brown and the newsmen, Vanderbilt.

The changes in the Harvard schedule this year involves the substituting of Vanderbilt for Carlele, and Maine for Bates.

Tennis Matches by Lamp Light for Woodbury, N. J.

WOODBURY, N. J., Sept. 13.—The quaint little Quaker city of Woodbury possesses a very wide-awake and up-to-date Country club which threatens very much to disturb the slumbers of the older set by adopting what might be termed "intensive recreation." Intensive farming is briefly making two blades of grass grow where one grew before; intensive recreation might be termed as greatly increasing the here-tofore possible meager recreation which is enjoyed by the average business man. Woodbury is really a suburb of Philadelphia.

The Woodbury Country club is a very democratic organization in that it is the playground for both old and young, the wealthy and of moderate means. Its broad acres include spacious golf links, a perfectly equipped clubhouse with its dining room, and billiards, shuffle boards, etc., and some of the finest tennis courts in South Jersey.

Tennis has become so popular at the club so much so that it became difficult for the average business man on Saturdays and holidays to enjoy the game, the courts being in such demand, and it was with the idea of remedying this condition that the playing of night tennis was considered. The idea of using artificial light for outdoor sport is not strictly novel. Baseball fields have been lighted, at least one installation has been designed for a bowling green in Canada, as well as one or two installations of night tennis courts, one in Cleveland, O., and another outside of Philadelphia, but the first installation for practical use has been made on the grounds of the Country club where four courts are lighted with high candle power gas lamps.

It is not the idea that only match games should be played on only one night of the week, as is the case in previous installations, but that the courts could be patronized by all club members. The experience so far has proven that night tennis in Woodbury is extremely popular, for the courts have been used several hours each evening, with several on the waiting list. The Woodbury courts are hard rolled gravel and not affected by the dew.

Polos are arranged so that they are not in the way of players—none being used at the sides. These are arranged at the ends of the net, alongside of the net poles. Most arms with a considerable spread, suspend the lamps. These lamps are not over the courts, but along the side lines, and are 15 feet above the ground. In order that there may be no glare, all the lamps which are suspended from the arms are equipped with opaline or milky white glass. The quality of the light produced is peculiarly wonderful, being soft and extremely pleasing. The lamp cases are finished in pure white metal, based on an intense heat similar to enamel on cooking utensils.

It requires 24 gas lamps, containing five mantles each, to illuminate two courts at any one time, and each lamp is lighted by a single switch. The gas consumption for lighting two courts is 425 cubic feet per hour, making the cost 20 cents per hour for each court.

The idea of attempting night tennis at Woodbury on this large scale is credited to Thomas J. Little, Jr., who is a prominent member of the club. The members of the club are enthusiastically over this venture, and every night the courts are full, as well as the surrounding grounds which are lighted from these lamps.

CHARITY BASEBALL AT ZOO AT 3 P. M.

Charity is going to have an evening at the zoo, and will be a real ball game, to be played aggressively, for he is known, if it isn't already, that these aggregations should be spelled with a capital "A." The Eiks team is the pick of the amateur ball and the league team of the pick of the union label organization's four teams, and there are ball players agents in both the amateur and the home-handed realms. Whoever picks the winner will be given free and without charge whatever he has wagered on the outcome of the contest, which, by the way, will begin at the hour of 8 and end some time before supper.

According to the most reliable dope the diamond artists will covet somewhat in this fashion.

PUEBLO BOY IS FIRST 1912 FOOTBALL VICTIM

PUEBLO, Sept. 13.—Frederick Blum, 18, a student in the Centennial High school, died today as a result of cerebro-spinal meningitis, aggravated by injuries received Tuesday during a practice football game. Blum was tackled, falling on his head. He was taken to a hospital, where it was discovered that he had been afflicted with meningitis. Surgeons saw an acute stage of the disease was brought on by the injury.

WOODBURY COUNTRY CLUB

The Woodbury Country club is a very democratic organization in that it is the playground for both old and young, the wealthy and of moderate means. Its broad acres include spacious golf links, a perfectly equipped clubhouse with its dining room, and billiards, shuffle boards, etc., and some of the finest tennis courts in South Jersey.

Tennis has become so popular at the club so much so that it became difficult for the average business man on Saturdays and holidays to enjoy the game, the courts being in such demand, and it was with the idea of remedying this condition that the playing of night tennis was considered. The idea of using artificial light for outdoor sport is not strictly novel. Baseball fields have been lighted, at least one installation has been designed for a bowling green in Canada, as well as one or two installations of night tennis courts, one in Cleveland, O., and another outside of Philadelphia, but the first installation for practical use has been made on the grounds of the Country club where four courts are lighted with high candle power gas lamps.

It is not the idea that only match games should be played on only one night of the week, as is the case in previous installations, but that the courts could be patronized by all club members. The experience so far has proven that night tennis in Woodbury is extremely popular, for the courts have been used several hours each evening, with several on the waiting list. The Woodbury courts are hard rolled gravel and not affected by the dew.

Polos are arranged so that they are not in the way of players—none being used at the sides. These are arranged at the ends of the net, alongside of the net poles. Most arms with a considerable spread, suspend the lamps. These lamps are not over the courts, but along the side lines, and are 15 feet above the ground. In order that there may be no glare, all the lamps which are suspended from the arms are equipped with opaline or milky white glass. The quality of the light produced is peculiarly wonderful, being soft and extremely pleasing. The lamp cases are finished in pure white metal, based on an intense heat similar to enamel on cooking utensils.

It requires 24 gas lamps, containing five mantles each, to illuminate two courts at any one time, and each lamp is lighted by a single switch. The gas consumption for lighting two courts is 425 cubic feet per hour, making the cost 20 cents per hour for each court.

The idea of attempting night tennis at Woodbury on this large scale is credited to Thomas J. Little, Jr., who is a prominent member of the club. The members of the club are enthusiastically over this venture, and every night the courts are full, as well as the surrounding grounds which are lighted from these lamps.

CHARITY BASEBALL AT ZOO AT 3 P. M.

Charity is going to have an evening at the zoo, and will be a real ball game, to be played aggressively, for he is known, if it isn't already, that these aggregations should be spelled with a capital "A." The Eiks team is the pick of the amateur ball and the league team of the pick of the union label organization's four teams, and there are ball players agents in both the amateur and the home-handed realms. Whoever picks the winner will be given free and without charge whatever he has wagered on the outcome of the contest, which, by the way, will begin at the hour of 8 and end some time before supper.

According to the most reliable dope the diamond artists will covet somewhat in this fashion.

Eiks—Sorenson, C. Austin, B. Dams, J. Cox, B. Nickelson, H. Anthony, B. Purcell, C. Horton, S. Myers, etc.
